THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS

In the parable of the rich man and Lazarus, we find an important lesson for our spiritual lives. A simple interpretation would be a condemnation of those who possess wealth and a reward for those in need. However, the deeper message of Jesus's teaching encourages us to reflect on our willingness to share with others and support those who are less fortunate. This support goes beyond just meeting material needs. It also encompasses spiritual, mental, and emotional assistance that individuals require to navigate the challenges of their lives.

The conclusion of the parable could be entirely different if the rich man had paused as he walked past Lazarus, who was outside his door. Instead of ignoring him, he could have acted like the Good Samaritan, who helped the victim of robbers on the roadside. The rich man could have treated Lazarus's wounds, provided him with food and drink, and made an effort to improve Lazarus's earthly existence.

Hearing a gospel like this can often be uncomfortable, and it might even make us feel guilty about times when we have overlooked the needs or suffering of others. First, it's essential to acknowledge that this guilt is a normal response. It serves as our conscience, reminding us to reflect on the blessings we have received and consider how we are utilizing the gifts that God has placed in our hands.

The key question is: Do we respond to our conscience? If we do, we can make a difference by embracing a new understanding of the gospel. If not, we should spend time in prayer and reflect on this.

The core message of Jesus is love. He taught that the greatest commandment is to love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, and mind, and the second is to love our neighbors as ourselves.

When we contemplate how to keep our conscience clear and stay close to Jesus's will, it is essential to remember the corporal works of mercy. These teachings from Christ can be found in the Bible, particularly in the book of Revelation:

- Feeding the hungry
- Giving drink to the thirsty
- Sheltering the homeless
- Visiting the sick
- Visiting the prisoners
- Burying the dead
- Giving alms to the poor

Christ tells us that when we do any of these things for the least of His brothers and sisters, we are doing them for Him. In other words, by practicing these acts of mercy, we align ourselves with God's will and help bring about the Kingdom of God in our midst.

Happy Sunday!

Fr. Alfonso Cely
Pastor

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We joyfully announce that the pictures from this year's Confirmation are now available! Families can easily access them by scanning the provided QR code. We encourage you to download and share these beautiful memories of a milestone in faith.

At the same time, we are blessed to share that our Religious Education classes have officially begun. This new year brings together students of all ages who are eager to grow in their knowledge of Christ and deepen their relationship with God. Let us pray for all our new students, that the Holy Spirit may guide them, strengthen them, and open their hearts as they walk their journey of faith.

Last weekend, our Catechists were commissioned by our Pastor, Fr. Alfonso, and sent forth to teach, mentor, and inspire the youth of our parish. Their mission is a vital part of our community, as they dedicate their time and hearts to sharing the Good News and helping our young people encounter the living Christ. We congratulate them and ask the Lord to bless their ministry abundantly.

Together, let us keep our catechists, students, and their families in prayer, that this year of Religious Education may be fruitful and filled with grace.

SAINT OF THE WEEK: FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

St. Maria Faustina Kowalska's name is forever linked to the annual feast of the Divine Mercy, the Divine Mercy chaplet, and the Divine Mercy prayer recited each day at 3:00 PM by many people.

Born in what is now west-central Poland, Helena Kowalska was the third of ten children. She worked as a housekeeper in three cities before joining the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in 1925. She worked as a cook, gardener, and porter in three of their houses.

In addition to carrying out her work faithfully, generously serving the needs of the sisters and the local people, Sr. Faustina also had a deep interior life. This included receiving revelations from the Lord Jesus, messages that she recorded in her diary at the request of Christ and of her confessors.

At a time when some Catholics had an image of God as such a strict judge that they might be tempted to despair about the possibility of being forgiven, Jesus chose to emphasize his mercy and forgiveness for sins acknowledged and confessed. "I do not want to punish aching mankind," he once told St. Faustina, "but I desire to heal it, pressing it to my merciful heart." The two rays emanating from Christ's heart, she said, represent the blood and water poured out after Jesus' death.

Because Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska knew that the revelations she had already received did not constitute holiness itself, she wrote in her diary: "Neither graces, nor revelations, nor raptures, nor gifts granted to a soul make it perfect, but rather the intimate union of the soul with God. These gifts are merely ornaments of the soul, but constitute neither its essence nor its perfection. My sanctity and perfection consist in the close union of my will with the will of God."

Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska died of tuberculosis in Krakow, Poland, on October 5, 1938. Pope John Paul II beatified her in 1993 and canonized her seven years later.

Reflection: Devotion to God's Divine Mercy bears some resemblance to devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In both cases, sinners are encouraged not to despair, not to doubt God's willingness to forgive them if they repent. As Psalm 136 says in each of its 26 verses, "God's love [mercy] endures forever."

EL HOMBRE RICO Y LÁZARO

En la parábola del rico y Lázaro, encontramos una importante lección para nuestra vida espiritual. Una interpretación sencilla sería una condenación para quienes poseen riquezas y una recompensa para quienes las necesitan. Sin embargo, el mensaje más profundo de la enseñanza de Jesús nos anima a reflexionar sobre nuestra disposición a compartir con los demás y apoyar a los menos afortunados. Este apoyo va más allá de simplemente cubrir las necesidades materiales. También abarca la asistencia espiritual, mental y emocional que las personas necesitan para afrontar los desafíos de la vida.

La conclusión de la parábola podría haber sido completamente diferente si el rico se hubiera detenido al pasar junto a Lázaro, quien estaba afuera de su puerta. En lugar de ignorarlo, podría haber actuado como el buen samaritano, que ayudó a la víctima de unos ladrones al borde del camino. El rico podría haber curado las heridas de Lázaro, haberle dado de comer y beber, y haber hecho un esfuerzo por mejorar su existencia terrenal.

Escuchar un evangelio como este a menudo puede resultar incómodo, e incluso puede hacernos sentir culpables por las veces que hemos pasado por alto las necesidades o el sufrimiento de los demás. Primero, es esencial reconocer que esta culpa es una respuesta normal. Sirve como nuestra conciencia, recordándonos que debemos reflexionar sobre las bendiciones que hemos recibido y considerar cómo estamos utilizando los dones que Dios ha puesto en nuestras manos.

La pregunta clave es: ¿Respondemos a nuestra conciencia? Si lo hacemos, podemos marcar la diferencia al adoptar una nueva comprensión del evangelio. Si no, deberíamos dedicar tiempo a la oración y reflexionar sobre ello.

El mensaje central de Jesús es el amor. Enseñó que el mayor mandamiento es amar al Señor nuestro Dios con todo nuestro corazón, alma y mente, y el segundo es amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos.

Al contemplar cómo mantener nuestra conciencia tranquila y permanecer cerca de la voluntad de Jesús, es esencial recordar las obras corporales de misericordia. Estas enseñanzas de Cristo se encuentran en la Biblia, particularmente en el Apocalipsis:

- Dar de comer al hambriento
- Dar de beber al sediento
- Dar cobijo a los sin techo
- Visitar a los enfermos
- Visitar a los presos
- Enterrar a los muertos
- Dar limosna a los pobres

Cristo nos dice que cuando hacemos cualquiera de estas cosas por el más pequeño de sus hermanos y hermanas, lo hacemos por Él. En otras palabras, al practicar estas obras de misericordia, nos alineamos con la voluntad de Dios y contribuimos a la instauración del Reino de Dios entre nosotros.

¡Feliz domingo!

Párroco
