Call to Be Holy

This weekend, on All Saints Day, we celebrate all those holy men and women who have gone before us and now share in the glory of God. Some are well known, like St. Peter, St. Paul, St. Francis, or St. Teresa. But many saints are known only to God—ordinary people who lived with extraordinary faith, love, patience, and courage.

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us the Beatitudes: "Blessed are the poor in spirit… blessed are those who mourn… blessed are the merciful… blessed are the peacemakers." These words remind us that holiness is not about being perfect. Holiness is about allowing God to work in our lives.

The saints faced struggles just as we do. They experienced fear, disappointment, temptation, and suffering. What made them saints was that they kept trusting God and choosing love.

All Saints Day also reminds us that we are all called to be saints. We do not need to do extraordinary things. We can become holy through ordinary acts of love: forgiving someone, caring for a family member, helping someone in need, praying faithfully, being patient, and choosing what is right even when it is difficult.

Let us ask the saints to pray for us today, and let us remember that the path to holiness begins with the small choices we make every day.

May our lives become a reflection of Christ's love, so that one day we too may share with all the saints in the joy of God's kingdom.

Llamado a Ser Santos

Este fin de semana, en la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, celebramos a todos aquellos hombres y mujeres santos que nos han precedido y que ahora participan de la gloria de Dios. Algunos son muy conocidos, como san Pedro, san Pablo, san Francisco o santa Teresa. Pero muchos otros santos solo son conocidos por Dios: personas comunes que vivieron con una fe, un amor, una paciencia y una valentía extraordinarios.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos presenta las Bienaventuranzas: «Bienaventurados los pobres de espíritu… bienaventurados los que lloran… bienaventurados los misericordiosos… bienaventurados los que trabajan por la paz». Estas palabras nos recuerdan que la santidad no consiste en ser perfectos. La santidad consiste en permitir que Dios actúe en nuestras vidas.

Los santos afrontaron dificultades, al igual que nosotros. Experimentaron miedo, decepción, tentación y sufrimiento. Lo que los convirtió en santos fue que siguieron confiando en Dios y eligiendo el amor.

La Solemnidad de Todos los Santos también nos recuerda que todos estamos llamados a ser santos. No hace falta realizar actos extraordinarios; podemos alcanzar la santidad a través de gestos cotidianos de amor: perdonar a alguien, cuidar a un familiar, ayudar a quien lo necesita, orar con fidelidad, tener paciencia y elegir lo correcto, incluso cuando resulta difícil.

Pidamos a los santos que intercedan por nosotros hoy, y recordemos que el camino hacia la santidad comienza con las pequeñas decisiones que tomamos cada día.

Que nuestras vidas se conviertan en un reflejo del amor de Cristo, para que, un día, nosotros también podamos compartir, junto con todos los santos, la alegría del Reino de Dios.

Guadalupan Jubilee Year: Indulgence

The Guadalupan Jubilee Year, which began on October 12, 2026, and will conclude on October 12, 2027, commemorates the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the new Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City.

During this special time of grace, the faithful may obtain a plenary indulgence by devoutly visiting the Basilica, spending time in prayer or participating in a liturgical act, and fulfilling the customary conditions: Sacramental confession, Holy Communion, prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father, and detachment from all sin.

At present, we are awaiting official confirmation as to whether this jubilee grace may also be obtained in other churches or cathedrals. We will share further information as soon as additional provisions are published.
